Dated: August 02, 2013.....

NOTICE

Principals/ Officers-in-Charge of concerned Polytechnics,

A one day training program on "Open Source Software (OSS) and its application" will be conducted in the following venues by R&D cell of this Directorate in association with Spoken Tutorial Project, IIT Bombay as per the schedule mentioned below. Heads of the Institutes are requested to depute at least one faculty member from Computer Science & Technology or its allied branch of his institute to attend the training program in the respective venue without any fail. Subsequently, these faculty members will appear for an online test approximately one month after their training, preferably in the same venue. On consultation with Spoken Tutorial Project of IIT Bombay, the date of online test will be fixed which will be communicated later. In order to bring a larger group of faculty and students under the domain of OSS and to accomplish the task of skill development in IT and IT enabled services, endeavor should be made to conduct such type of training program in all the polytechnics for further diffusion of ideas amongst all the teachers, staff and students by extending proper ambience to these newly trained faculty members. It is desired that Heads of the Institutes of the concerned venue will arrange at least 30 computers along with headphone, speakers, webcam, LCD projector, internet facilities and the like in the computer room for smooth conduction of online training with IIT Bombay through Skype. Further clarification regarding system requirements and other formalities of training may be sought from R&D cell of this directorate, the details of which may be obtained from the relevant link of the directorate's website.

NOTICE

As a sequel to the earlier training programs on Spoken Tutorial Project of IIT Bombay, teachers who have already undergone training in “Open Source Software and its application” from different polytechnics will henceforth act as centre representative and conduct similar training programs in their respective institute for disseminating the knowledge further on the subject to students as well as to their peer groups. A calendar of one month duration has been prepared to conduct such programs (please see attached Annexure). In the process, the following 4 polytechnics will act as zonal centers for monitoring and coordinating the institutes which were already earmarked for conduct of such training.

1. APC Roy polytechnic, Kolkata (Coordinator: Mr. Sudipta Sengupta)
2. KG Engg. Institute, Bishnupur (Coordinator: Mr. Dilip Ganguly)
3. Siliguri Govt. Polytechnic (Coordinator: Mr. Tapas Mishra)
4. ARM polytechnic, Sheikpara (Coordinator: Mr. Azad Hossain)

Centre representatives at institute level in consultation with Spoken Tutorial Project, IIT Bombay and zonal centres will decide the specific software to be taught in the training program and also prepare similar training calendar for their respective zones in future. They are also requested to submit a detailed report regarding their activities to R&D Cell of the directorate from time to time (e-mail: rdcell_dtetwb@yahoo.in).
