What are we going to learn?

Summary

To answer a question in PAR format of story telling, the steps we need to follow are:

- The first step: You need to know who you are telling your story to.
- The second step: You need to understand what information they are looking for.
- The third step: You need to think about the experience you want to share.
- The fourth step: Your experience must communicate the information they are looking for.

Assignment

As an assignment

- I want you to tell your friends your experience of performing two tasks. Like Smitha, you must have worked on both the tasks at the same time.
- Use PAR format of storytelling to tell your story.
- After you narrate your story, ask them what they thought about your presentation.
- The more often you practice, you will get better at storytelling
